What is the difference between family and a friend?

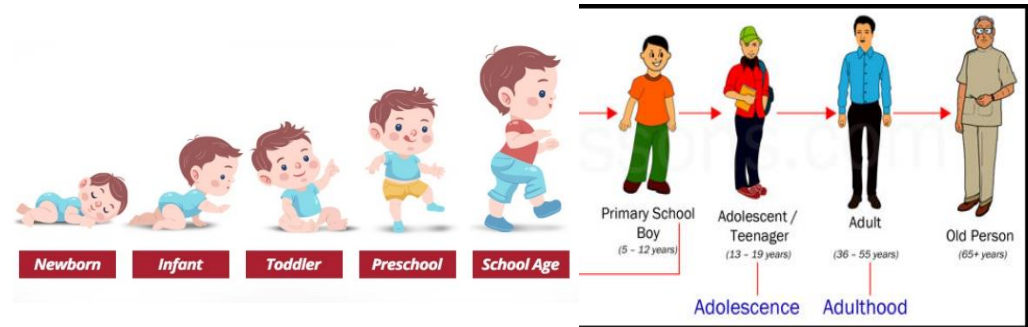

Family are people who are related to one another.

Family members include:

- Mother/Mum,
- Father/Dad
- Sister or Brother
- Grandmother
- Grandfather
- Auntie or Uncle
- Cousin
- Stepmother/father/sister/brother

Can you describe the stages you have already grown through to become a child? / Do you know what the next stages of development are?

Friends are people who like spending time together.

What changes might you go through as you grow up?
