

Geography Key Skills

By the end of KS1 all children must be able to:

I can find the United Kingdom on a world map, identify England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland and know the capital cities of each.

I can find Hemingbrough on a map.

I can describe some human features of a place.

I can describe some physical features of a place.

I can mark points of interest on a map.

By the end of KS1 all children must be able to:

I can draw a map with a key and compass direction.

I can name and locate all seven continents; I can name a country and its capital within each continent.

I can record and talk about measurements related to the weather.

I can compare human and physical features of at least two locations.

I know about natural disasters and the effects they have on people.