

Reading Tic-Tac-Toe

Your Name: _____

Book Title(s): _____

Author(s): _____

Write a diary that the book's main character might have kept before, during, or after the events of the story. Remember, what the character is thinking and feeling are important!	Write a different ending for your book, OR write a different beginning for your book.	Write and perform an original song that tells the story of the book.
Create a mini comic book that relates to a chapter of the book you just finished reading; OR make a comic strip of your favorite scene.	Become a salesman! Prepare a talk to convince the students in your class to read your book.	Draw a picture of your favourite part of the book. Remember to use colour, and your IMAGINATION!
Make puppets for the characters in your book. Give your classmates a puppet show based on your favorite scene in the book.	Make a poster about your book. Include a summary of the story, a list of the main characters (with descriptions), the story's setting, and describe your favorite part. Be creative – use words, drawings, songs, photographs, etc. to make your classmates interested in the story.	Pretend that you are the author of the book. Because you are a GREAT writer, your book is a bestseller! Write a letter to a movie producer, convincing that person to turn your book into a movie. Explain what the story is about, and give ideas about where the movie could be filmed, and who the main characters could be.
